SEEC Magazine is published by SEEC Ministries International. SEEC stands for Strengthen, Encourage, Equip Church Ministries according to 1Co 14:3 and Eph 4:12 as taken from the New International Version. This is our mission statement and SEEC Ministries International is attempting to accomplish that mission through ministry in local churches, around the globe, in conferences, seminars, through publishing, internet, audio and video. CDs and books by Marty and Kathy Gabler, may be ordered at: mail@seecministries.org or 935-653-4108 or write us at our PO Box.

SEEC Magazine is a quarterly publication produced by SEEC Ministries. It is for the purpose of presenting teaching on the subjects of the Kingdom of God, prophecy, five-fold ministry, dreams and visions, and intercession. Though each of these subjects may not be covered in each issue, they will be covered through the course of the year's publications.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: Please send your name and address to SEEC Magazine PO Box 298 Coldspring, TX 77331-0298. A donation of $20.00/yr. is suggested to help with publication costs.

Clarity, Cooperation and Mission Accomplished

Kathy Gabler

Kathy will be speaking and interpreting some dreams at DREAMS VISIONS PROPHECY 2023.

Going to a new level in dreams, visions and prophecy involves getting to a place of more clarity and cooperation with these downloads. In the two weeks prior to our annual Dreams, Visions and Prophecy Conference in 2022, Marty and Melissa and I realized the Lord was increasing operations on a new level as we experienced more visions and dreams than we ever had in a two week period. And those incoming insights were also clearer and confirmed quicker than ever before. It was an amazing experience. In that two week period, there were literally signs and wonders and events that were too many and too timely to question as coincidence. God was getting our attention to urge us to discovery and clarity and God-outcomes. For example, directly above our house that week, there was a brilliant rainbow one day and then a double rainbow at the same time the next day. Then four eagles showed up. They were flying so low that their huge shadows kept crossing the window until we finally went outside to see what was happening. Noticing signs and wondering is sometimes a heads-up to watch for God-downloads incoming, and that proved to be the case.

Before I got out of bed the following Monday, I saw a quick scene of a dimly lit room. It was evidently an old neighborhood gym. It was dark and shadowy with a boxing ring in the center. There were old, tattered gloves hanging on pegs. I saw a friend of mine walk in, head and shoulders drooping like she was weary. Her eyes were on the ring and I knew

Kathy will be speaking and interpreting some attendee's dreams at

she was dreading another battle, but evidently felt she had to climb in and duke something out. Then I heard the words, “Don’t be baited into that ring.” I lay there praying not realizing it was a word of knowledge at first. Somehow I sensed she had fought there all her life, battling with bullies for herself and others. That was not surprising because I know she has a warrior heart. Facing off and taking on battle head on is her way of dealing with things, but NOT THIS TIME! I started my day and kept praying for her. A couple of hours later she phoned me, (and that call confirmed the vision and connected it to its purpose and mission). I could hear her upset as she told me that three days earlier, the doctor had told her that she possibly had cancer. She had an appointment the next day for the final testing. When I told her the vision from that morning, she asked me if I knew that her dad had been a boxer and had taught her to fight. I answered no, and we both teared up, amazed with our God. I told her it is time to battle differently. This battle was about Trust rather than courage and determination. Before we hung up, she spoke a word of wisdom: “My dad had to keep going into the boxing ring because he could not forgive himself.” In that moment, it was clear that the first step toward this victory would be forgiving herself.

I believe a new level means we can expect supernatural synergy and acceleration in getting to clarity. In that Monday morning experience, the supernatural synergy was the enablings of God’s Spirit working together. A vision, a word of knowledge (concerning a family pattern of operation), a word of wisdom (instructing not to handle this battle as usual), and a gift of healing joined forces for a power surge toward a God outcome.

The next day, I had a short dream. In the dream I saw some paperwork with a paperclip on it. At first I assumed it was a finished project that was about to be passed on to another desk, but suddenly I said, “I know what that paperclip means,” and I woke up with that “knowing”. That paper clip was put on it to lay it aside, but that would delay a pending process. Whether that delay was deliberate or not I don’t know, but I began to pray that the clip be removed and the process loosed to completion. When I told Marty this dream, he immediately realized it was a word of knowledge for the coming weekend, and it was notice for someone that the delay facing them would be resolved. Talk about acceleration, I was amazed! I had understanding, clarity of purpose and mission instructions before breakfast! We seemed to be caught up in the synergy of the Holy Spirit as His enablings joined forces again, this time with a dream, a word of knowledge and a prophetic word.

A few minutes later, I was sitting at my computer when a quick scene flashed through my mind. I saw the talons of a huge bird of prey. Its talons were long, thick and black with blood dripping. Clarity and understanding came simultaneously as the vision continued. This was a predator in the atmosphere sent by the prince of the power of the air. It was sent to attack people and tear them down hit by hit and bleed them out, drip by drip. This was an attack of problems meant to become ALL-consuming. As I watched the attacks and realized the intent of each hit, the download was a live-stream in real time: Talons pierced the flesh of one man's calf intent upon crippling him to a halt mid-step. On another, the talons surrounded the head like a helmet that darkened the thinking. On another I watched the talons pierce the back and anchor that person to things from the past as another talon lunged into the chest traumatizing the physical heart. Next I saw talons grip a forearm to hinder reach and function. Talons dug into an ear, distorting information and counsel before gripping the neck like a yoke of slavery. The whole vision was a brutal blitzkrieg as agents from hell carried out their sabotage assignments intent upon their hits becoming an All-consuming focus that shut their victims down. For a few moments it was a breathtaking movie flashing at warp speed, but then there was a sudden stillness. I realized that these birds of prey were on assignment AT LARGE. The power of the air or the Atmosphere over our entire nation was under threat of this predatory presence. However, this vision carried a word of knowledge and prophetic word, both for the DVP conference in 2022 and to the reader now. "For any who have been HIT with something that has become ALL CONSUMING, I have good news for you. You will WIN!" I declare this in confidence because that vision ended with a powerful final scene of FEATHERS FLYING IN ALL DIRECTIONS! That foul fowl and its mission was SHOT to oblivion! (And the angels must have used shot guns!)

When I told Marty about this vision he suddenly remembered his dream that same morning: In the dream, he was shooting birds with a shot gun! He's not a bird hunter and doesn't care for that type of hunting, but that was a confirmation to me that this All-consuming Predator was ALREADY on God's prophetic HIT LIST before I even saw it or before its take down! So, if any of those talon attacks describe your situation, take confident hope and release from the Spirit of God now. Please take it!

Footnote: I got another call from my friend in the Monday morning vision. She was leaving the doctor's office and her battle was won! The doctor's further testing showed there was NO cancer! A couple of hours later, I got a text from a friend on the East Coast who'd just had a vision. In her vision experience she was at the Cross and she was supernaturally and finally released from a past sin that had lingered as a nagging shadow for over forty years! Both of those ladies had talons in their back holding them to experiences from the past, but suddenly, both could declare that the predator and its talons and its threats were now mere feathers in the wind! (KATHY will be speaking at DREAMS VISIONS PROPHECY 2023 which is September 8-9 at Grace Church Willis. Turning Points in This New Era

Turning points in this New Era:

1) For the first time since the first century church, all the ascension gifts of Christ are functioning in the earth and they are also working together. This is major! Ephesians is about fullness. God's fulfillment is toward fullness. We don't have fullness of God's purpose until we have the fullness of Christ's ministry in the earth to bring that forth. This is not just guys or gals wearing fivefold badges. We're all fivefold in anointing somewhere along the way as trainers, teachers and equippers.

2) The next turning point in this New Era is this: forty years ago, we began to see a shift in thinking concerning the work of the Lord God in history. Early on before that, the primary theological assumption was the church defines the Kingdom. If you study church history, especially through the dark ages, you begin to realize something was not lining up with scripture. And so we had a reformation in 1517, etc. In the last forty years, this has turned. Now the Kingdom defines the church. That's right, and that's huge. The reverse has happened because the Kingdom is transcendent over the church and everything else. We are the Ekklesia who govern on the earth because He gave us the keys, but we're extending and advancing a Kingdom that transcends all of us. That may be simple to say, but it's huge, and it's happened in about forty years, a generation. That's exciting!

3) Something else has happened in the past forty years concerning the church's view of the future. While we have had more than one view of eschatology in church history, and obviously that's true today, have you noticed we are shifting our thinking because of the understanding of Kingdom dominion? When you and I see the dominion mandate of Genesis 1:28, it calls for us to engage every spiritual, cultural, economic and political entity, and engaging all these spheres sometimes means we're opposed by a spirit of antichrist. But something shifted in the church and we've begun to see our goal is not evacuating earth, but occupying it. We've begun to see that it's the wheat that remains and the tares that get raptured. God keeps the wheat. God keeps the farm. God keeps the barn and God keeps the whole earth. He's the possessor of heaven and earth. He's the owner. He owns it all. He's Lord over it all. So there's been a shift. I'm going to tell you my eschatology: I don't focus on pre-millennial, a-millennial or post millennial. My eschatology is UNTIL.

4) Another turning point is at generational synergy where fathers and sons connect in Kingdom purpose. Jesus, the pattern son, didn't just disciple but He raised up twelve spiritual sons. One of them flunked out and was replaced by Mathias. When Jesus prayed in John 17, He said, Father, I've accomplished the reason you sent me. I manifested your name to the men you gave me. We love that He fed the thousands and healed the multitudes. We love that, of course, but Jesus' priority was what Father said to do and that was to bring forth His government on planet earth, (with the 12). And that government is covenantal. And it's a father-son relationship. That's the paradigm in the Kingdom of God. It's all about the Lord's glory. Cover the earth as waters cover the sea through the mature sons and daughters who know their identity, their purpose, and their destiny. He's the Lord that commands His covenant to a thousand generations. His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob/Israel is an everlasting covenant. He's the God that joins generations, like joining together Elijahs and Elishas to fulfill God's purpose. This is not new stuff, but this is something that's happened in this New Era. This was not happening all that much previously in the body of Christ, at least as far as the understanding of fathers and sons.

5) The current New Era is releasing faith for us to believe Ephesians 4:13, that Jesus, the ascended and enthroned Christ, is going to fill all things. This is not universalism. This all things term is defined by Peter in Acts 3:21, The heavens must contain or receive Jesus Christ until the restoration of all things spoken through the mouths of the holy prophets. In other words, Peter defined this is not universalistic, but this is comprehensive. This is saying that Jesus is remaining at the Father's right hand until everything the prophets have declared comes. And bottom line, what they declared was salvation for Israel and for the nations. So now we begin to say, "Lord Jesus, we believe you can begin to fill everything". You can fill the seven mountains of culture shapers, all things that the prophets prophesied. I was recently smitten by a word. I don't know how I overlooked it for years, but it just got ahold of me. I did some research and it just set me on fire. Ephesians 1:10 talks about the summing up of all things in Christ, in heaven and in earth. It's the same phrase, all things, but the summing up word from the original text in the Greek language means to put in headship again. Jesus Christ, before he was incarnate as a child born in Bethlehem, He was the Son of God that exists forever. And the son of God in creation is referred to by Paul in Colossians as the head of the first creation. But now after the Christ event, death, burial, resurrection, ascension and so forth, then all of a sudden Christ comes into headship again. And the Latin word there is recapitulation. In other words, Christ was recapped. He had headship as the Son of God eternally. Now He has headship over the Ekklesia church as Jesus, Yeshua, Messiah, mediator, man and Lord, hallelujah! And He is there. And because that's happened, and because of what he's doing in history by the Holy Spirit, and because of all I've said up until now, we're beginning to say, "Lord, you really can fill all things with the ascended Christ." Jesus Christ can fill up any empty space in lives, in cultures, in society and in people groups.

6) In this New Era, the emphasis is not going to be on removing the rubble of anti-Christ worldviews, but on laboring with our enthroned Lord Jesus through the power of the Holy Ghost to build a Kingdom civilization right here on Earth. Nehemiah and his team had to clean up rubble before they could start building. We still have rubble today that needs to be removed. I understand that. It's rubble caused by oppressive civil governments, apostate religious systems, and by various zeitgeist, which means spirits of this present evil age. So therefore, even though the rubble is still there, we must consider what Jesus did at the cross: He legally, covenantally, judicially removed the rubble. Then He rose from the dead and set in motion the restoration promised even in Genesis. Notice Peter in Acts chapter three, after his chapter two message, begin to release the forces of restoration and hope that Jeremiah prophesied. That now comes into implementation because the Man for the job, (pardon me saying the man), is the Son of God, the Son of Man, and He's there to do that job. When Adam and Eve broke covenant in Eden, the cherubim blocked access to the tree of life. It was almost like there was a sign posted there in Eden that said, "Stay out, closed for renovation." But when Jesus rose from the dead, from a garden tomb, He removed the sign. (I'm speaking now metaphorically.) And He put up another sign that says, "Welcome back, you now have access to the tree of life." So John said in Revelation 2, that the Church of Ephesus, if they were overcomers, would have access to the tree of life. So while recognizing the task of removing rubble is not removed from us yet, I believe that now, in this New Era, the Holy Spirit is releasing a new enabling grace for us to focus on what the Lord wants built on the earth. And what He wants built, of course, is His bridal city called the new Jerusalem. Come on, that leads to new heaven and new earth, if you will. It's Ekklesia.

7) The turnaround in this New Era is the mature sons as Ekklesia shining forth like never before in history. In the language of Isaiah 2, the Ekklesia is the house of God on the mountain of the Lord to which the nations stream to learn of God's ways and to walk in His paths. It's lovely metaphorical language, on the mountain of the Lord. That mountain is the Kingdom, the place of covenant-making. In Matthew 5, from the mountain, Jesus says, "You are a city set on a hill," a mountain where they cannot be hidden. Church, we're not hidden. They can see us, they can hear us. Some want to silence us, but they can't. Have we fully arrived in our discipling process? No. But we have matured beyond what we were. We still need more awakening, more reformation in the body of Christ. The church ongoingly needs reformation because it's come out of alignment with the word of God written and prophetic word spoken. It is a built-in mechanism for God to say, "I'm going to nurture you and teach you and encourage you and exhort you and help you and grace you to be all you are designed to be." And that is not just for individuals, His followers, but for a corporate body of Christ Ekklesia. And so we grab onto that and we do embrace reformation. Thankfully there are forerunners that always keep reformation hooked with awakening, because we cannot move forward unless we see they are connected. Let's keep moving forward.

Words Given at Kingdom Congress 2023

These words were given by various speakers in the Friday morning meeting (3-3-23) of Kingdom Congress 2023 at Grace Church Willis. I felt that they should be shared here.—MPG

KATHY--There's something going on this morning that is in the unseen yet to be seen. And what I hear is the Lord is taking care of things within us. He's bringing changes within us that are going to manifest in our understanding. And what I mean by that is I kept seeing like train tracks built a section here and a section over there, and it was like things that have impacted us and deposited in our life through the years, through our ways that that track is laid. But it was like, what's the purpose of that? It seemed random. There's no connection, but the connection is what is coming. On connection, there's impact. Yes. When we connect corporately with anything, there's impact. But when our understanding begins to connect, why did God, why did I walk through that? Why did this come this way? What is that in my life about?

We're fixing to come into some connection that brings literally physical healing on top of understanding, on top of purpose, taken on revelation and tangibility that we can walk in, we're coming to a connection and God is lighting, highlighting the pieces that seem so random. It's like one of those puzzles of the dots. Once you get it drawn, it jumps out at you. Oh, okay. One thing God is doing today is He is bringing revelation upon potential and purpose because it's time for it to manifest. You know what potential is? It's undeveloped capability. Yes, God gave it and it's capability, but it's undeveloped. And once it's developed and once it connects to purpose, which is the intent of God within you, that can never be erased. It's original intent. When purpose connects with the potential that has been developed, then you can impact. You get manifestation, you get the results.

The number four for me in biblical represents when God shows up like the fourth man in the fire. So when he shows up in the tangible realm, will I assure you this morning, He is showing up tangibly in your life and the results will be undeniable and suddenly they're gonna connect and you, oh my God, yes, that's what He was saying. That's what He was doing. It's gonna impact our physical, it's gonna impact our mental, our psychological. It's gonna impact us because He's bringing us to the reality of his original intent. We couldn't grab it, we couldn't walk it, but He's bringing it to pass. We're going to see the purpose of God manifest. We're gonna be awake, we're gonna be aware, and we're gonna be all in--awake, aware and all in. And that's gonna be obedience of the moment. That's gonna be where it makes a difference. When she started singing, first off, no more struggle, I kept feeling it, but I wasn't getting it, feeling it wasn't getting it. He said, you're gonna quit struggling with everything in you. That's become a filter that you thought was necessary. And it's been a blockage and a delay all the way through. And I have abundance of them.

He said, you're gonna quit struggling inner and flow. You go from stress to flow. Hey, hey, I'm all in. I'm tired of stressing. I'm a master at it. I'm stressing. Is this right? Analytical and some of you're the same way. It's in our personality. It's that eagle that just has to analyze everything, but there's a flow when that eagle is soaring. There's that lion personality that says, "Don't give me details. Just get it done. Let's get it done. I got a list, I'm gonna get it done before 10 o'clock." And I got both. I mean, got a mixture. Sometimes that lion wants to eat that bird. Cause I don't wanna think about it anymore. I just want to do it. I'll tell you something real personal here. I started preparing for this conference the 1st of February. I gave myself four weeks instead of two weeks just to get ready to be here this morning at this time.

And all along the dots would not connect. I sat at the elder's meeting two weeks ago, and I heard the Lord say, "Don't look for something new. Look for something now." I thought, what are you talking about, God? I can't do that. When I got home, I started looking through my notes. What do you mean something old? But for now, I went back 25 years, y'all. And you know what He said 25 years ago, I stood right here and said, you've not passed this way before. And I'm gonna tell you today, that's good news. We've never been where we are right now, but we've never seen what we're about to see either. And we're never been a part of it as much as we're going to be now because of what God has done in us and through us.

And then a dear, spiritual daughter called. She said, "I had a dream about you. I was walking behind you just so many feet just staying right with you. And we walked in a room, we walked in a building and you started opening the rooms and you'd put a lamp right in the middle of the floor that went up, a torch lamp. And I said, that is revelation on potential and purpose because a room is just empty. It's got, it could be anything. There's potential, but it has to be developed. And when there's revelation on it, then the room takes on purpose. And I'm telling you, God's doing that in us today. The struggle's gonna be quit conflicting in inside and be able to flow with the Holy Spirit. Flow with Him. And we will, we'll be awake, we'll be aware, and we will be all in. So be it unto us. Amen.

DR. DON CRUM--Amen. Thank you Kathy. What you just said is so from the Lord. It's just amazing. Here's what He's been saying to me and I've heard this in my spirit for the last month, and this is a military type thing. He said, "Accurate, strategic assessment will lead to effective tactical advancement. So if you are good at strategic assessment, it will always result in a tactical advancement. And aren't we a people of advancement? Don't we talk about kingdom advancement? How do we get from talking about it to doing it? God says, this year is gonna be the year that I'm gonna train you better in the art of strategic assessment. Now what does that mean? It just simply means that you look at those dots. See, I just think it's, I'm having a good day if I can even see the dots,

I feel lucky if I can just see the dots. But we gotta move to the next step to connect what we see because all of it, none of it is really random, is it? It's specific to what God wants to show us because He connects those things that seem random, but they are very purposeful and intentional by God. So He shows you all of these things and then shows you how to tie them together. That's strategic assessment. It's not just, it's not just seeing the enemy on the battlefield. Anybody can see that. When the enemy's shooting at you with all he's got, it doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out the enemy's out there shooting at me, but it's tactical assessment to know what do I do to respond besides just taking cover. I'm not satisfied with taking cover and surviving a battle to fight another one the next day.

I would like to know how God wants to move me into making right assessment to then come up with a strategic tactical advancement to win the war. It's just like Kathy, when you were saying this, you were hitting right there on that vein of what I believe the Lord's trying to show us is, thank God you can see the dots. But now we need to be saying God, how do we connect the dots? How do we connect all of these individual revelations that's supposed to be taking us into a tactical advancement for your Kingdom and for your glory. So it's not good enough just to see the dots. Thank God we can see the dots. But now ask Him to show you how to connect them. Why does He show you what He does? One thing I've noticed about God, He doesn't waste time showing you stuff that has no meaning. He just doesn't do it. He's not a teasing God that throws a bone out there for you every now and then and says, "Hope you can get a little meat off of it". No, He shows you what He shows you because He wants to give you a bigger picture from His perspective so that really you can advance. You can advance, not just survive today's battle. He wants us to win the war. And we're going to.

DR. DANA SLEGER--A few weeks ago when I was praying for this conference, I saw Prophet Marty, he had this staff and it was a wooden staff and at the top of it, it was a gold scepter. And he stood in the middle of this room and he took this staff and he banged it into the ground. And when he did that, the frequency, this governmental frequency was released from this place. And everything that has been spoken here, everything that has been decreed, everything that you just shared, everything that you just shared is being released as a frequency into the region that you take this back to, into the homes that you take this back to, into the businesses that you take this back to. And the angelic in this room is so palpable right now. I saw this last night and I saw it again this morning.

There was an angel assigned to this side. There was an angel assigned to this side, and they were carrying a basket of live coals from the altar. And these live coals were white hot coated with the fear of the Lord and inscribed on every coal was John 15:4, abide in me, and I in you. And these angels were giving you coals. And as you were receiving these coals, there was something being inscribed on your heart of a deeper multidimensional revelation of what it means to "abide in me and I in you". And then I saw three governmental angels step onto the middle of this stage. One from the company of righteousness, one from the company of peace, and one from the company of joy. There is something so revelatory happening, and you being here is by no mistake. And what is being imprinted on your heart, what is being tattooed on your heart is a Kingdom revelation that you are taking back to the metron, the sphere of influence that you represent to bring the dynamic and the revelation of the governmental aspect of the Ekklesia back to what you are called to do, what your assignments, what you've been assigned in your life, what you have received in these days and are gonna continue to receive are going to change the dynamic of your metron where you are assigned. So this frequency, be open to the frequencies that you feel. Some of you are gonna tangibly feel the ripple effects. That's gonna be like an earthquake that you bring back to your region that you bring back to your city. This city, Willis, Conroe, Montgomery County, something big is happening right now in the angelic, something big, big. There's a swirling like a vortex around this county and God is doing something with His glory that is transferring and He is shifting out the darkness. And there's an invitation of the light coming in. There is a new day for Montgomery County, and I declare over this region that you are marked by the Kingdom of heaven. I declare over this region that there is an Ekklesia type of shift happening where even what teachers are going to be standing in the classrooms, and they're gonna be so shaken by the fear of the Lord, that the curriculum that they have been handed by the secular society, they're going to be so moved by the fear of God that they're gonna stop in their tracks and what they utter out of their mouth are going to shift from darkness to light in a matter of seconds. And classrooms are going to be changed, classrooms are going to be transformed.

I declare what is happening with that point of revival, that kiss of holiness is visiting the campuses in the state of Texas. And Texas will be known for one of the greatest Holy Spirit outpourings that has ever hit this land. And what is gonna be transferred from the state of Texas will move state to state and it will shift and it will mark and it will make, and it will cause a momentum to move forward where there's an invitation for people who desire to step into the waves of glory, to be transformed by the waves of glory, to be transformed by this prismatic nature that we are stepping into a new revelatory understanding of what the Kingdom of God really is and what it means to really be an ambassador of the Kingdom and what it really means to stand as a forefront, mighty point of contact as an Ekklesia ambassador to move and shift and direct and change.

And you have all authority and you have all power to do what you have been called to do, to accomplish every assignment that has been assigned to your life. You will not fail. You will not fail. When you walk hand in hand with the God who created the heaven and the earth and He knows every star by name, then surely He knows your name and He knows what he's doing with your heart. And He knows what He's doing with the assignments that He has specifically called you to walk in. And you will not fail when your ear is so inclined to the One Who made you to the One Whose DNA breathes within your body. And you move and you shift with the ebb and flow of the Spirit. So know that you're assigned to this moment. You're assigned for such a time as this, that you'll leave this Kingdom Congress not the same way that you walked in with. You'll leave with greater purpose.

You will leave with greater passion. You'll leave with a greater dimension of understanding, knowing that you're here for such a time as this. And I declare over you that you are being crowned with the bounty of heaven, that your homes are being crowned with the bounty of heaven. And there's a version that says your wagon tracks, Your wagon tracks are blessed by the Lord. So I bless your wagon tracks where you come and where you go. And as you leave this place in Willis, Texas, I bless your wagon tracks back to your home. I bless your wagon tracks back to your city. I bless your wagon tracks back to your county and I bless your wagon tracks back to your churches and your assignments. And you will not fail. You will not fail. And your eyes are being open to see more than you've ever seen before. Your wings are being stretched to soar higher than you've ever soared before. And you are being elevated to greater heights and you are being anchored into greater dimensions so that you can accomplish what you need to accomplish.

JOE BOGUE--I see the picture of soldiers standing around a table and they're gearing up. There's clips, there's grenades, there's all kinds of stuff, and they're just grabbing stuff and just sticking them in all their pouches and Velcro and all that, the sound of gearing up. So this is a time just to receive whatever you need, whatever you think you need. Gear up for where you're going and what's happening. And one of the things that Brother Don was saying there about having that strategic view and a tactical application, in the NFL they have this thing called the U 22 camera and they put it way up in the roof so you can see all 22 players at the same time. So at any given moment, they can see what's happening on the field. But in using that, they have a principle and this is what they say, "We look from the balcony, but we listen from the field. We look from the balcony to see everything. But you have to listen from the field". And he said the best quarterbacks, Peyton, Manning, Brady, everything looks right from up there, but they can see the eyes across the line.

You understand what I'm saying? So don't trade one for the other. You need both. To get insight to what God wants to do in your reaching day by day moment by moment. So Father, right now, open our eyes to see big picture strategies and open our ears to hear. What you want to do moment by moment, day by day. A seeing eye and a hearing ear right now in the name of Jesus. I pray, I speak confidence into your senses right now, when you sense something in the Holy Ghost, when you hear something in the Holy Ghost, when you see something in the Holy Ghost, when you taste something in the Holy Ghost, have confidence in yourself. Make that audible at the line. Make that decision. You make a wrong decision. Make another one. See from up high and listen from the field.

DR. GREG CRAWFORD--I was seeing something in the spirit. I saw the table of heaven. I saw us all seated and I saw a giant scroll that was like a piece of leather, about four or five feet wide and about eight feet long on this table. And a parchment was laying on the center of it and it was unfolded, it was unrolled. I saw an ancient language that was setting on the scroll. And I said, God, I can't read this language and I wanna read what's on this scroll. And He says, "You don't have to read it, son. You don't have to read it". He says, "I'm sending it". And then I saw a whole pile of smaller scrolls stacked on top of this single scroll. And I saw those scrolls then seem to disappear off of that scroll. And Don Pope was playing on the horn. And I saw coming out of the end of the horn, these scrolls, and they were spinning, and as they were spinning like a tube of leather with a parchment in the middle, they were unfolding and the sound was the interpretation of the words. And the Lord said, "These are the scrolls of assignments.

And some of the assignments require the healing of your body to fulfill. And some of the assignments don't require that healing. But the assignment is coming out". And I saw the scroll back in heaven, and it was as if a line was peeled off and was put in a single scroll and another line was peeled and put in another scroll. And the Lord said,

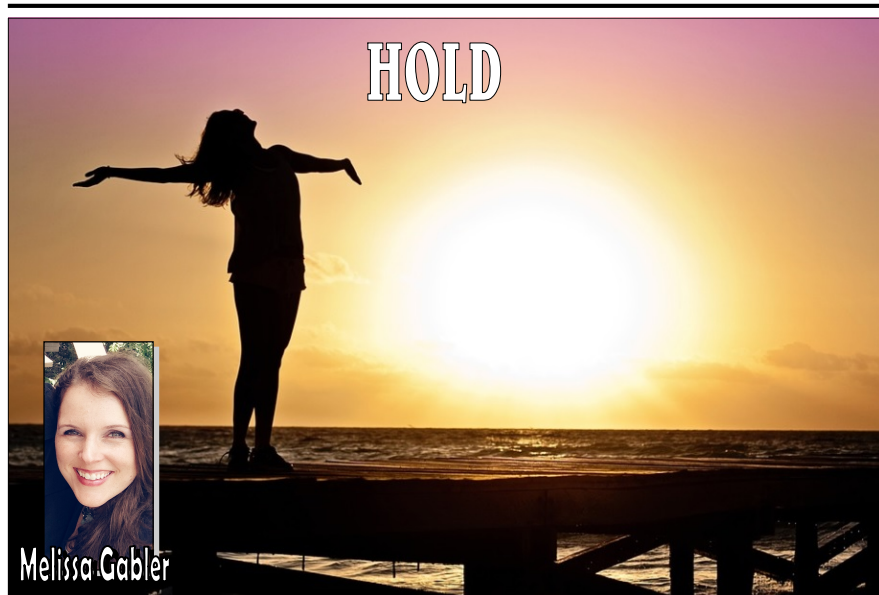

"Here is the whole thing, but everybody is carrying a piece in this room today". And as Don was playing, I saw that scroll spin and the parchment was freed, and the assignment went in. And the Lord said, many can't seem to hear or even understand, but the frequency of heaven penetrated today and penetrated in, and you're carrying your assignment out of here. And for some of you, the assignment requires your healing. But for some of you, the assignment is just the assignment. And so all of you, whether you understand or don't understand or you didn't comprehend, you're carrying something because when Don was playing, there was a frequency that went into you. And Don, I've seen the notes come out of the end before last year when I was here, I saw the sound of healing come. But today I saw this.

And the Lord wants you to know there's more that you're doing than what you think you're doing. You're intercepting the frequency and bringing it into the earth. Like what Dr. Don was talking about with the sound and the thread, the thread is attached to those scrolls. So Father, I just thank you for that today.

DR. DON CRUM—This a quick yes and amen to what Greg just shared. But all during this morning, during the worship, I've been hearing like a radio dispatcher saying over the air, "Code four, code four, code four". Now Bill and I are ham radio operators. That's one thing Bill and I have in common. But I used to drive an ambulance in Dallas when I was in Bible college, and I had forgotten most of those radio codes. And so when He said, when I could hear code four, code four, I'm thinking, what does that mean? And I had to think about it. It means "disregard". In other words, you're on a call. We used to have the lights, the sirens blaring we're like driving like crazy like Jehu the chariot in the Bible. And in your adrenaline, you know, there's something about lights and sirens blaring that kind of get the adrenaline pumping. Any cop will tell you that. And so all of a sudden the dispatcher code comes over and he says, "Unit eight, code four". That's all he has to say. And all of a sudden there's just a rush of peace. And you shut down all the lights and sirens and you drop from 95 miles an hour to 45 or whatever. But I heard "code four" was being issued in the spirit to cancel assignments of darkness. It was God's "code four" issued in the heavenly spiritual realm, but it was issued to the enemy and to his central command commanding a disregard of that assignment, of that attack, of that witchcraft. And all it takes is that one code four. Everybody that hears it knows what it means. Every demon that's been assigned to that darkness that has come against you, has received a code four from heaven's dispatcher. Sickness has received the clarity of a code four disregard. And when you get a code four you, don't call the dispatcher and say, "Now wait a minute. Are you sure? No, no, no. A code is very clear, no question about it. God has issued a "disregard", a "cancellation" of every assignment of the enemy against your life and against your future assignments from Him. In Jesus' name, amen.

Recently on a Sunday morning I was getting ready for church and asked the Lord what I needed to pray over the service that day and I clearly heard, "Prepare us for the onslaught." I instantly had a sense that there are challenges coming to those of us that have been in the church for a while, challenges that will try to knock us off of our foundation in Christ. I literally heard the question being asked, "Is what I have believed my whole life even true?" I shared this with those in my Pastor's office before service. During worship Pastor asked me to share this and then he followed up with having the congregation take hands all across the room. He proceeded to say, "Hold. Hold. Hold," and then he said, "This is the stance we have to take in the days ahead." This could not have been more accurate instruction. Within the following weeks lives began to erupt like a volcano. There was a moment in the midst of it all I was reminded of what I'd heard and realized I'd thought it was going to come from outside, but it started from the inside first. My Pastor's words started ringing in my head, "HOLD." This instruction brought peace and stability.

I'm not writing this from that place on the other side of a battle looking back over it. I'm writing from the midst of the onslaught. Also, I am not writing this from a place of despair! The Lord does not give us insight like this to warn us to get ready to be beaten up and hope we can hold on to make it out alive. He gives us this kind of insight because He is doing something in the middle of it. There is something major shifting. An onslaught such as this proves something major is shifting! An enemy does not attack when it has you subdued and controlled. An enemy attacks when it's control is being overturned. That is exactly where we are.

When the Lord said to pray we be prepared for the onslaught we did, and then His instruction came to hold. What this instruction has shown me is “This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ says the Lord of Hosts.” (Zech. 4:6) This cannot be handled or fixed by our might or power. We are at the place where all of our self-help, strength, reasoning and logic have absolutely no power against this onslaught. What we are experiencing is what has been fueling the problems in lives and society and it has been hidden behind the scenes until now. This is a spiritual war and this is only the beginning.

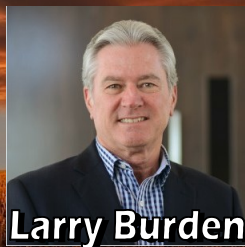

Here's the good news of the big picture, “The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness, The world and those who dwell therein.” (Ps. 24:1) He is not going to abandon His creation. He is going to fully possess this earth and He is going to do that through us. This is seriously the time to step out of the chaos to see what's happening. He is exposing, tearing down, uprooting and dealing with evil. When you see the big picture it changes your perspective in the heat of the battle. This world is not being destroyed, it's being turned right-side up, “For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; And the former shall not be remembered or come to mind.” (Is. 65:17)

As a heads up I want to say, we really haven't seen anything yet. Things will get much more intense, bizarre and shocking in the days and years ahead. We need to realize we are being called out of the grave but the grave does not want to let go! Going from death to life is a spiritual matter and self-help, reasoning and logic can't make that happen. Only the Spirit that raised Christ from the dead can make that happen (Rom. 8:11). So, to say it in a different way: things will get much more spiritual in the days and years ahead. We are going to see some stuff. We are going to be involved in some stuff. We need to know WHO we are and that is what this onslaught is teaching us. We are sons and daughters of the King, made in His image to see evil removed from and His Kingdom settled on this earth.

The Restoration of Authentic Fatherhood

Larry Burden

The hidden works of darkness in our nation continue to be progressively exposed. Just when you think you have seen it all, another layer peels back for us to see and to increase our efforts in war to restore the soul of America. In the recent months of our kingdom assignment alone, a charge has been led to confront evil in our metron of influence to remove pornography from public school libraries, to counteract identity confusion in the mindsets of our children, and to stop gender modification interventions for minors as a permanent solution to gender confusion. While we celebrate the victories in our government assignment, only a true encounter with Christ will affect the change of heart in humanity that will ultimately reform the culture.

The erosion of the family continues to escalate. In a recent post of a national prayer ministry, it is revealed that a new California law has just been enacted whereby parents who refuse to affirm transgenderism in their own children will be charged with child abuse. Their children will be removed from their home and placed into child protective services. The war for the destinies of our children is raging at fever pitch. The enemy of our soul has become brazen, puffed up with pride, and arrogant.

In June 2022, a Fox News headline stated that nearly 18.5 million children in the United States of America grow up without fathers. Now, as never before, the need for authentic fatherhood has become of critical importance in our nation. It is in times like these where the sons and daughters of God look to the fathers of the household and to the fathers of the faith to not only become anchors for their souls but also to be compasses for their journey ahead as they grow, mature, and navigate the insanity of this present era.

We are approaching a time of critical mass in America where darkness and light will have a collision of finality. The mocking spirit that has operated to humiliate our prophetic destiny is being unseated, and our children's hearts are going to experience the heart of Father God in a true, life altering way. Clearly, fatherhood will play a critical role in this restoration process as our children become the genuine sons and daughters whom God created them to be.

Healthy fathers and mothers are the keys that unlock the true identity of their children. They recognize that it is neither the responsibility nor the place of the state, the public schools, or religion to establish the identity of their children. It is the God-ordained assignment of the father of the household to establish within his children who they are and who they have been created to become. It is the healthy home where father and mother assume their God-ordained place so that children may grow and mature in security, stability of soul, and confidence in a hopeful future.

The dynamic of genuine parenthood in the home is also necessary for the body of Christ. As sons and daughters of the faith, we all need the influence of godly spiritual parenting in our lives. Can I tell you that fathers and mothers of the faith need other fathers and mothers of the faith influencing their lives too? We are not to be codependent upon one another, but we are to be connected and accountable to one another as the family of God. In order to be effective in this, we must have authentic fathers and mothers of the faith among us who will lovingly engage our lives for the purpose of maturing and equipping us for the coming days.

In a recent informal survey, I reached out to a random selection of over fifty seasoned spiritual parents and children of the faith for their feedback. I made a simple request for them to share with me the top five attributes of a spiritual father that was most important to them in their walk with The Father. I collated all their responses and categorized the following collective list:

Number 1 – Being genuine and authentic

The most important attribute for these respondents was that spiritual fathers be real, honest, open, honoring, and humble with their spiritual offspring. They saw an authentic father as one who was teachable as much as they were teacher. Being honest, trustworthy, stable, faithful, and integrous were most important to these leaders.

Number 2 – Welcome open communication

Second in the order of importance was a spiritual father who was supportive, and as needed, corrective. They saw this quality being implemented through empathy, honesty, and a loving heart. They saw an authentic spiritual father as a sounding board who would welcome communication and impart sound, wise counsel.

Number 3 – Loving and nurturing

Third in the order of importance was a spiritual father who was personable, welcoming, honoring, and exercising unconditional love. They saw this father gift being one who filtered the father-son/daughter relationship with a pure heart of The Father's love.

Number 4 – Covering

The respondents in this attribute made it clear that covering was for protection but not control. It was important that there would be a mutual respect and honor of both the spiritual father and spiritual offspring while dealing in truth that oftentimes must be shared. In addition to this was the honor to share the mantle of authority of the father as a spiritual son or daughter.

Number 5 – Access

Finally, the respondents listed access and availability as one of the top five most important attributes of a spiritual father. It was important to the spiritual offspring that their spiritual father would have a genuine interest in their lives and demonstrate honor toward them as a spiritual overseer of their lives.

As I pondered these responses, I noticed that none of the Top Five included teaching and training. That is not to say that these are not important, but it does speak a truth that Paul shared with his sons and daughters in the Corinthian church:

For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many FATHERS. (1 Cor. 4:15)

The church had many grace gifts but lacked the maturity level it took to operate those giftings properly. Paul stepped in, and through love and grace, he brought correction, stability, maturity, and ultimately restoration to those who had been out of order in the church. He then exhorted his offspring to imitate me (Verse 16). This was his charge to sons and daughters to embrace his core values, catch his fathering spirit, and to follow his model.

In addition to this observation, I also had a brief vision of a tsunami fire being ignited on the west coastline of America and sweeping rapidly across the nation from west to east. It completely consumed the nation, leaving nothing but ashes behind. I then saw Malachi 4:1-3 which states,

For behold, the day comes, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all that do wickedly shall be stubble: and the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings, and you shall go forth and grow up as calves in the stall. And you shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, says the Lord of hosts. A divine shift is upon us! We need authentic fathers to lead the way. Breaking the Curse of Suicide Over a Nation

To Bogue and family, Jonestown was prison

Escaped from Jonestown

Today

In November of 2022 a missionary friend of mine, Danny Green (Nations in Love Ministries), told me that he was planning a trip to Guyana. Danny had started planning a trip a back in 2019, but Covid shut down all those plans. Part of his plans was a word from the Lord instructing him to go to Jonestown and repent for what the American Church had opened over the nation. Guyana at the time was second in the world for suicides, primarily by drinking poison. When he told that the Holy Spirit pricked my heart and said “you need to go.” I had learned a few years ago that there were Bogue’s there at Jonestown. I was watching a documentary of the 40th anniversary of Jonestown and learned that several Bagues had been part of Jonestown but wanted to leave with Congressman Leo Ryan who was shot and killed on the tarmac of Port Kaituma. They made it out as the gun fight began at the airstrip. As I was praying about going and asking the Lord for confirmation, my sister in law, who does our genealogies, sent me a news paper article from that time. She had enrolled in an organization that finds articles about your family. The first article came from my fathers home town of Kokomo, Indiana, and the headline said, "To Bogue and Family, Jonestown Was A Prison." I knew for sure I was to go.

Virgie and I had been trying to get our Global Entry done. We both applied, mine came back 2 weeks later, but Virgie's took 10 months. Then, I needed to find an appointment in Houston where both of us could go at the same time. The only appointment available was Feb 7, 2023. We both went down for the interview process, and low and behold, my passport expired Feb 6, 2023. I went the next day and applied for an expedited passport. Ten weeks later it still had not arrived. I was a week away from traveling and no passport. I called the passport office who then informed me that the only place with an appointment available was El Paso. I drove to El Paso for an 8am passport appointment. I stayed and waited all day. The office closed at 3pm and I received my passport at 2pm. Saturday, on the way home, just as we were reaching Houston, Virgie became terribly ill. She began to vomit profusely and could not stop. She told me to just get her home and I may have driven over the speed limit. About halfway home, she said, "Take me to the emergency room." This is Saturday 5pm and we are rolling into the emergency room. They put her in a wheel chair to take her in, and she is continuing to vomit. After triage they moved us into the hall with some meds and an IV where she continued to vomit for the next hour. Finally the vomiting stopped and they ran a series of tests. She began to feel better. Still sitting in the emergency room, Virgie turns to me and says, "you are going on this trip!" She knew I was thinking that maybe I shouldn't leave her. We got home about 11pm. I preached Sunday AM and flew out to Miami Monday morning.

The ministry team was coming from all over and we met in the Miami Airport. My flight brought me about 3 hours early. We all met up at the gate and waited for our flight leaving at 6:30 PM. Our flight was delayed three hours for a mechanical problem on the plane. We waited another hour to bring us another plane. We finally left at 10:30 PM for a four hour flight to Guyana. Danny and I had picked seats next to each other so we could talk about the trip on the way. Upon boarding I realized that they had changed my ticket to 33F, which is the very last seat on the plane. Not only was I not next to Danny, but I was up against the bulk head, so my seat didn't recline, and I got to hear every flush of the toilet. About half way through the flight, when everything was quiet, I asked the Lord "What's the deal?" Getting my passport, Virgie getting sick, flight delays, and now the wrong seat, I mean, "What's up?" This is what I heard very clearly, "They don't know you're coming." "What do you mean, they?" I asked. But the conversation was evidently over, like Hello, Hello, Hello . . . No signal. We finally arrived 2:30 AM and still had to drive an hour to Georgetown to our hotel. The next day we slept in, had some team building, and ministered in a local church where we saw some healings and deliverances.

Wednesday morning it was raining and we went to the airport to get on a puddle jumper to Port Kaituma. The flight was delayed because of weather. I was glad for that. That was the smallest plane I had ever been on. It had 10 seats and room for cargo. We landed in Port Kaituma. This was the same tarmac where that Congressman Ryan and others were killed. We went into the town to our hotel. We came into the main street and had to walk down a narrow street to our hotel. It was wide enough for a 4 wheeler to go through if you move to the side. (Ask me how I know later.) The street was full of bars and stores. Each room had a bed, AC, shower, and toilet. We went to the bush about four miles away to a little church to minister that evening. Danny has a relationship with a local named Bishop Rodwell McClean who planted a church in this region. He was our local host and had authority in the area. That evening we ministered in a little church with about 40 people. Prayed, prophesied, delivered, and healed many that night. As we returned late that evening we had to walk down this narrow street to our hotel. This street had now become the central avenue for prostitution and drinking. The music was so loud we couldn't hear each other shouting. As we walked by these bars and clubs, women were asking Danny and Bishop McClean if they needed their services. Strangely enough, none of those women spoke to me....hmm, but I had my answer ready. We definitely caught many stares as though we didn't belong there. Eyes were looking us over and one man got right up on me, literally two feet from my back. I took off my backpack and began stretching my arm behind myself to get him off of me. We got back to our rooms and the music in the streets was pounding till 2:00 AM. Shouting, fighting, partying sounds were all right outside our windows. There is gold mining in Guyana and this is where all the gold miners go to spend their money. So the festivities lasted till about 3:30 AM and then quiet reigned in the streets.

The next morning we drove to Jonestown. The drive was about 45 minutes away up in the hills. It is almost to Venezuela. As we were in the van, we turned a corner and Danny said, "Did you feel that? The atmosphere just changed." A minute later we arrived at the gate of Jonestown. You could feel the difference immediately. We drove in as far as we could and then we had to hike the rest of the way. As we hiked, there were jaguar paw prints the size of saucer plates. They were not only big prints, they were fresh prints! (We were not at the top of the food chain there.) After walking for a few minutes we came to a Memorial that was placed there for those who died. It is a simple white 6ft tall headstone with a small placard to the those that died here. (By the way, the event happened on November 18, which happens to be my mom's birthday.) The jungle has overtaken the buildings and cars. You can't go back into that area anymore. The heat was sweltering. There was a small hut to the side that we all went under. We came together as a team: Bishop McClean had authority in the region, Danny had a mandate from the Lord, and I had family members that were there. We began to pray and repent for what was opened over the country by the American Church in the name of God. We received communion together and declared, "If the blood of Abel can cry up from the ground for justice, then the blood of Jesus can bring healing to the ground." We poured out the rest of the juice on the ground and declared this portal and power station of darkness closed. We prayed until we felt a release. It was a powerful moment. On the way back, we stopped at the small church where we ministered the night before. As we rolled up, there was an abandoned house next door that people were burning. That neighbor specifically had opposed the church being built next to him. He was manipulating the people against the church. Bishop McClean had confronted him years ago and said, "If you don't stop what your doing, I will go to the Lord about you and you don't want that!" The man fled and abandoned the house. As we walked up, that house which had been there for many years was now being burned to the ground. I preached that evening at service. God moved wonderfully; healing, restoring, delivering people. As I sat down after service, the Lord brought back a remembrance. I remembered a time in my home church in California. We would have prayer at 5:00 PM before 6:00 PM service. I would go and there were some old prayer warriors, John and Maria Odeen. We had several Swedish members in our church. They were wonderful intercessors and loved young people. I remembered one time at the prayer meeting that John Odeen put his hands on me and said, "Go to the nations Joey, go to the nations." As I sat there the Holy Spirit spoke to me and said, "John's prayer was fulfilled tonight." I was wrecked. God is answering prayers I've forgotten. Faithful God!

That night as we made it back to our rooms, the people were exceptionally loud outside. I put on my earphones and listened to worship. At 2:00 AM a street fight broke out just outside my window which was no more than thirty feet away. As I peeked out my window, there was a swirling mass of people cussing, pushing, and squaring off with each other. After that settled down, there was a couple negotiating the price of the rest of the evening outside my door. Needless to say, I didn't sleep until 4:00 AM that night. The next day we met at 6:30 AM to go to the airport. Somehow when they booked our flight in to Port Kaituma, the people didn't book us a flight out. So, we had to wait for a plane to come. As we were waiting, a van of Americans rolled up. I believe they were special ops. They had the boots, khaki pants, black shirts, sunglasses, and ball caps. They were also very muscle bound. (I asked one of our team members what do they have that we don't. He said, "Guns, knives, training.") Nevertheless, I took it as a sign from the Lord that our mission was likened to these soldiers. There were seven of them and seven of us. We slipped in for two days and accomplished our mission quietly and without fanfare. Normally on a trip, I post what we did each day, but I felt a check in my spirit not this time because our mission was to be done quietly. We didn't even speak of it till the last church we ministered in on Sunday night.

We traveled out of Port Kaituma to Georgetown where we ministered that night. After service we went to the YWAM base in Parika on the other side of the country. Danny taught the students and we went door to door. We had great encounters. One lady invited us in just to bless her home. As we prayed I got a word of knowledge about her knee hurting. I asked if we could pray for it and she said yes. As we were about to leave, she said "you guys are different." She told us the the Witnesses (Jehovah) were just here before us and that they read some scriptures and told us who Jesus wasn't (namely God) and then left. But, we took the time to pray for her. She kept saying, you are different. We ministered at a Baptist youth group, another church in Georgetown, and an Assembly of God church on Sunday night.

The week was quite remarkable and God was faithfully leading us to do our portion in the Kingdom. The still quiet voice of the Holy Spirit led us every step of the way. I thank God that simple obedience moment by moment can bring transformative change to nations. To God be the glory.

This past May 21st, I was enjoying a powerful worship service, when I heard the word “compound.” I said, “Lord, I know I’m to share this, but I don’t know how to describe this word in context. Can you expound on this?” He said, “My church has sent up much in store to me and I want you to tell them I am releasing the overflow to them, if they can believe it” (meaning the word released must be believed). So I approached my pastor, he yielded and I gave it like I received it – Simple! Yes, but after beginning to express this word, the Lord expanded or clarified by saying, “I see that your needs are for peace, rest, intimacy, relationship, finances, etc.” In other words, the overflow is and was not necessarily the exact things we sent up. He released things for our personal applications. I stressed that He said He was “releasing”, not pouring out willy-nilly, and that it must be believed.

After the service I was musing on just how different this particular word came and how Father wanted me to convey it, lo and behold “it” began to grow. He added additional words parallel to the original. For instance, He said, “This is open-ended,” (no time frame, sort of like an open door). Then He surprised me again and said, “What I pour out from heaven is not diminished.” This word-journey was growing. As I listened, He continued day after day at a regular pace. Then on one day, He said to me, “I want you to share this with the ministers you have relationship with.” I concluded this was much broader than the release of this word to one church and that it was for His church.

So I was prompted to call a prophet who was from Mississippi, who stayed at our Bed & Breakfast about seven years ago. This call blew me away! After we conversed, I knew God was up to something much larger, as far as to what and who He desired this expressed. So I called this brother and it went to voice mail. I hung up and texted him at 7:21 a.m. my time. The text said “I have a seasonal word I would like to share with you for encouragement.”

About 10 minutes later, he called back and said, “Pastor Burling, I was just in my prayer closet when you called, and the Lord told me that the word He had for me was for my next assignment, and I believe it’s from you.” I said, “Well brother, the word the Lord gave me was “compound.” When he heard the word “compound”, he suddenly broke out in tongues with loud praising and shouting. I thought “Wow, I didn’t get that much out of it myself!” Then he explained. (Before going further, let me give you the proper credentials of this prophet so you’ll understand his next words to me.) I mentioned he had been to Bellville 6-7 years ago to preach a revival for a Back to God – Holiness Church. He came to the front door of our B&B to check in and on that day, just my wife and I were there in the living room. After a couple of words of introduction, something happened. We all three just began to praise the Lord and the prophetic broke out. First he said, “Man of God, you’re about to get a call from a young man named Marcus. He’s wanting to talk with you about missions and you are to help him and give him accounts of your history in missions.” Please remember I’d never seen, nor spoken to this man and he didn’t know me from Adam! He continued to say, “Pack your bags – you’re going on a long trip.” Then he turned and gave precious words to my wife. To bring this into perspective, two days later, my wife answers the phone and is holding her hand over the receiver, as she says, “There’s a guy on the phone named Marcus and he wants to talk to you about missions.” I’ve had some words spoken over me from true prophets that have come to pass but never in around 48 hours.

I’ve written about my trip to India in another article, but the highlight of that trip was that I was healed of shingles after preaching four times in one day. The last stop was a church that I preached at on Sunday. We had to catch a train at 10:30 p.m. for an eight hour, overnight trip, but as soon as we could, we checked back with the pastor who led the last service. We found out that after we left that church on Sunday, no one else left there. In fact, not one person left the church until Thursday when half went to their jobs and homes. Alright, now you know that the journey of this word compound is about to get legs!

Back to the prophet on the phone. As to the word God gave me, he said the reason he was praying was that one month earlier, the Lord had given him the word INVEST! He put the two words together, invest and compound. One meaning of compound is to add to something so that it changes its effectiveness and increases its strength. While we are talking, these two words are working synergistically in compounded investment. We're both rejoicing that the Lord has taken these two words and put them together. He told me that the Lord had told him in the prayer closet he would have the word he was seeking today, and it would affirm the previous word. And he knew that I had it when he read my text. I've been totally humbled by this experience and want to encourage you as you read this that it is still open-ended, if you believe.

2 Chronicles 20:20 says "Believe in the Lord your God, and you will be established; believe His prophets and you will prosper." This is a proceeding word from heaven to His Church, to release to His people for this time and this open season. His compounded investment for us is continuing and not diminishing. He told me to consider the prodigal's father in Luke. Although the son demanded and spent his inheritance, when he came home, the father said, "My son which was dead is alive again." In other words, he's a new son to me and his inheritance is restored, because like our Heavenly Father, the prodigal's father was still alive and all his business was compounding and gaining more and more interest. So now the son still has a new inheritance, not so in this world, but only in heaven does this work.

One definition of "compound" is combining words. Compound words are formed by combining two or more words together to create a new word with a new meaning. The new word is usually related to the meaning of the original words, e.g., "compound and invest".

My friend, Prophet Marty Gabler, encouraged me to write this for publishing when I shared this story with him recently. I believe this word will Grow and Give you what you need. As you BELIEVE, allow this word from the Lord to adapt to your circumstances. After all, THIS OVERFLOW HAS BEEN RESERVED FOR YOU NOW, you sent it up and the Lord is saying, 1 Peter 1:3, His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to Life and Godliness.

This is a word about the state of Texas that the Lord gave me at 1:07a.m. on 5-26-23. The first thing I heard was: Texas is a leader state. God has worked in Texas over the years and has placed persons in the state and has not let certain persons leave the state, so that Texas could be a place of His revelation and a place of developing and releasing the Ekklesia. Father God is asking, "What shall I do, Texas"? Yahweh is not looking for information. He is looking for agreement. He has planted His Word and His witness in Texas. The people of Texas are to be seeing what He will do next on His calendar and speak it, declare it to the nation so that it may be activated in the atmosphere for quick releases and accomplishments so that the weeping and the mourning of the captives is ceased.

When I was hearing the question that our Lord was asking, I had a strong sense that Father was asking His sons so that they could answer out of what they knew about Him and His character and His purposes in the earth at this time—what they had picked up from Him by being with Him and hearing His voice. The picture which came to my mind was of a King sitting around a table with His sons/daughters and deeply desiring their input from the depth of their development and maturity. He was longing for trained and mature sons, who have received of His heart, to meet His expectations of who He believed them to be rather than them just asking Him for things all the time. The overall sense I had was that it was a meeting of the Ekklesia [His Church, i.e., His legislative body] with the Head of the Ekklesia and that Head wanted to see His Ekklesia respond in the same manner that the prodigal's father wanted him to represent him in the marketplace after receiving the robe and ring (Lk.15). After receiving the robe and ring, the son was expected to go into the marketplace and do business as his father would, were he present.

Since it was at 1:07a.m., I had a sense that I was to go to the Holy Scriptures in the Book of Isaiah and was very moved at what I read in Isaiah 1:7—"Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers." The Scripture is quite accurate in describing a great deal of our nation and it seems to be confirmation that intercession and action are being called for in the areas of America's current events described in Isaiah.

On the Saturday night before camp this year, I was praying over the camp week coming up and praying for the campers. Sometime around midnight, I was sitting at my desk praying. All of a sudden, on my computer screen, a news item flashed up. Newsmax put up an item that said, "Teens are not enjoying life in the social media age". My heart broke and I began to pray over camp and I said, "Lord, what is the answer? What are you saying to this?" At midnight when my computer clock ticked over to 12:00 AM this is what the Lord gave me: There is too much sameness, too much repetition and that repetition is hopelessness and despair. The repetitious narrative is self-focused and lifeless. That's why they're not enjoying the social media age. They're all the same, spouting the same hopeless, useless narrative and now they are looking for what is real. They're looking for life that is worth living and Someone (that's "Someone" with a capital S), Someone to live it for in purpose.

The Lord said that in the midst of the rise of those who are falling in suicide, I, the Lord God, am bringing an increase of those who are rising in hope. And then I knew right there, that I must declare to the teens of our world, "You're rising in hope. You're rising, you're rising in hope! In the face of hopelessness, you are the ones who will be different. You won't be the same. You will speak life. You will speak of the King and His kingdom. You will speak of His righteous authority that can break off their chains. Can you hear me say, "You"? You are the ones who will say, "Rise and be healed." You are the ones who will say, "Rise and be free." Rise and be every wit whole. The trauma and injustice you have suffered is now broken off you in Jesus' name!

I pray everyone hear this last statement the Lord gave me. It's actually a scripture. Ps.118:17--"You shall not die, but live and declare the works of the Lord." I say to you, "Live, live, live"!

Thank you for praying. After each issue is mailed, more dates get added to the calendar. Bless you for praying for us.
